

Dear Parent / Carer

English Literature – Set Texts and Revision Guides –Y10

Your child has recently started studying ‘Jekyll and Hyde’ by Robert Louis Stevenson in preparation for their GCSE English Literature studies. To support this, we recommend purchasing a copy of the novella for your child. Owning their own copy is invaluable, as it allows pupils to make notes directly in the text, use Post-Its, and highlight key quotations. Alternatively, you may find past pupils reselling their resources on social media platforms, or you can explore editions with alternative layouts, such as those offering space for annotations or larger text. Please choose a version that best suits your child’s needs. If possible, we kindly ask that you purchase this text, along with the additional set texts required for the course. ISBN numbers have been provided for your reference. Thank you for your support.

Lever Arch Folder Our pupils benefit greatly from owning their own folder. A dedicated folder is essential for keeping multiple revision guides, study books, and other resources in one place, supporting both their organisation and academic success. We strongly encourage you to consider purchasing a lever arch folder for your child. This will help them categorise the two subjects they will study (Language and Literature), ensure quick access to organised materials, and minimise the risk of losing or damaging key resources.					From £3.00

*Pupil Premium students will have their own copies provided for them.

If you have any questions regarding the text, please contact your child’s English teacher.

Yours faithfully

Aly Egerton - Head of English
